Following Burying of the Alleluia - Clean-up outside by parent volunteers and 6-8 grade students (Yard/Pavilion/Hall)

Mary Immaculate School

10390 Remick Avenue * Pacoima, CA 91331 * (818) 834-8551 Fax (818) 896-7996

Before we bury the Alleluia at approximately 1:00 PM on 2/25/20, the students will enjoy the festivities of “Fat Tuesday!”

Each student will be wearing colorful costumes/clothing along with their masks. Mardi Gras colors include green, red, purple, yellow, gold, silver, etc. If they choose not to participate, then they are to come dressed in their school uniform.

Mardi Gras parade will begin at 10:45 AM. Parents are welcomed to join us. Bring your whistles, tambourines, and beads! Additionally, if you would like to bring a decorated Mardi Gras wagon, stroller, or cart, it will be entered into a contest where your child’s entire class can win free dress and an ice cream treat!

A king and queen will be selected from the Middle School Department, based on the most festively dressed for Mardi Gras. Pictures will be taken of the king and queen and placed in the yearbook.

Come one, come all!
