

Read Across America Week 2021

Celebrating a Nation of Diverse Readers

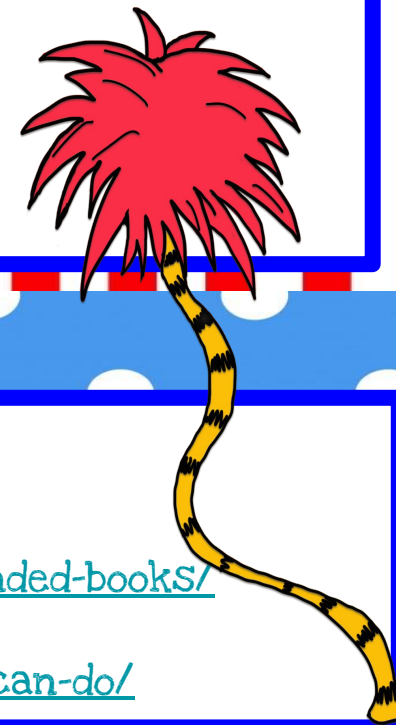

Monday: DEAR America Day (Drop Everything And Read): Wear red/white/blue & come to class with your favorite book.

Tuesday: Happy Birthday, Dr. Seuss! Wear a hat to celebrate Dr. Seuss's most loved book, "The Cat in the Hat."

Wednesday: Wear a shirt or outfit that represents your culture to show that we are a nation that celebrates diversity!

Thursday: Dress up as your favorite storybook character today.

Friday: No School, Faculty In-Service Day

Extra Resources:

For read alouds: www.readacrossamerica.org/kidlit-tv/

NEA recommended books: <https://www.readacrossamerica.org/recommended-books/>

Raising readers - for parents:

<https://www.readacrossamerica.org/raising-readers-what-parents-can-do/>